Help support the advancement of SIDP Members!

We are excited to launch our new annual giving campaign! Our goal is to develop SIDP members through increased opportunities in research, scholarship, and travel support. SIDP's Mission is to ADVANCE infectious diseases pharmacy, LEAD antimicrobial stewardship, and OPTIMIZE the care of patients. Your donation today will support awards that advance the essential role of pharmacists in antimicrobial pharmacology and antimicrobial stewardship.

Initial funds raised will immediately go towards travel awards for SIDP trainees to attend and present research at the SIDP Annual Meeting. In addition, the long-term goal is to establish a self-sustaining fund that will allow for an annual residency or fellowship grant to increase opportunities in infectious diseases pharmacotherapy training as well as continued travel awards for trainees and financial support for the SIDP Young Investigator Research Award. Your contribution will have an immediate impact on our mission and help us to secure our future ability to provide these valuable grants and scholarships to our members.

Antibiotic Use (AU) and Antimicrobial Resistance (AR) data reporting to National Healthcare Safety Network (NHSN)

Goals:

- 1) Identify characteristics of US health systems that are associated with active reporting of these data to NHSN
- 2) Determine how these data from NHSN are being used by health systems and,
- 3) Identify barriers to participating in reporting these data to NHSN. The data gathered in this survey will be used to generate a report that will be published in a peer reviewed journal and shared with relevant stakeholders at the CDC.

GOT OLD ANTIBIOTICS? Dispose of them safely here!

You can turn in your unused or expired antibiotics for safe disposal here

What can I do to use antibiotics safely?

- Only use antibiotics as directed by your prescriber
  - Never save antibiotics for future use
  - Never share antibiotics with another person

- Use of antibiotics when you don't need them can cause harm, such as:
  - Side effects
  - Antibiotic resistance
- Improper disposal can cause problems, such as:
  - Accidental ingestion
  - Water pollution

How do I dispose of my old antibiotics?

5 WAYS HOSPITAL PHARMACISTS CAN BE ANTIBIOTICS AWARE

Pharmacists can be Antibiotics Aware year-round. U.S. Antibiotic Awareness Week (November 18-24, 2019) is a great time to highlight our impact!

About

The Society of Infectious Diseases Pharmacists (SIDP), founded in 1990, is a professional association of pharmacists and allied health professionals practicing in infectious diseases and antimicrobial stewardship.<sup>[1]</sup> Infectious Diseases pharmacists practicing in the clinical setting specialize in the use of microbiology and pharmacology to develop, implement, and monitor drug regimens that incorporate the pharmacodynamics and pharmacokinetics of antimicrobials to optimize therapy for patients.<sup>[2]</sup>

According to SIDP, the organization's 1500+ members are involved in patient care, research, teaching, pharmaceutical industry, and government.<sup>[3]</sup>

Advocacy

The SIDP Political Advocacy Committee advocates to various government and private entities on matters related to antimicrobial use and resistance.<sup>[4]</sup>

In January 2019, SIDP's President, Kerry LaPlante, attended the public meeting of the Presidential Advisory Council on Combating Antibiotic-Resistant Bacteria (PACCARB.) The purpose of this meeting was to respond to the charge of the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services to gather public input on combating antimicrobial resistance.<sup>[5]</sup> In her public comments, LaPlante asked that the Council prioritize accelerating research and development of new antimicrobials through innovative funding mechanisms, protecting the supply of existing drugs, and a new priority to develop strategies to mitigate anti-infective shortages. Pharmacist representation on the Council was also requested.<sup>[6]</sup>

SIDP Position Statements in Antimicrobial Stewardship

SIDP has published position statements that focus on improving the use of antimicrobials.<sup>[4]</sup>

Antimicrobial Stewardship

An intensive practical application of antimicrobial stewardship for infectious diseases pharmacists. Our purpose is to develop a strong knowledge base in microbiology, pharmacology, and disease state management. With this program we hope to improve patient care and outcomes, reduce healthcare expenditures, reduce antimicrobial resistance, and extend the longevity of the limited number of antimicrobial agents available to treat infections.

Long-Term Care
The only antimicrobial Stewardship Certificate Program designed for pharmacists practicing in long-term care settings. A collaboration between SIDP and the American Society of Consultant Pharmacists.

PHASE 1 Online self-study modules
Study at your own pace for the foundation for the webinar and practice components.

PHASE 2 Live webinars
Live webinars presented by expert faculty with online interaction to answer your specific questions.

PHASE 3 Practice Implementation
Implement what you've learned to your practice setting with feedback from the expert faculty.

A Certificate of Achievement will be awarded to participants who successfully complete all three program components.

ProCE is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education.

For more information, accreditation details, or to sign up for this activity visit www.sidp.org or www.ProCE.com or call ProCE at 833-340-2848.
